It should be noted that we thought it is safer to use double-arm occluders and beveled laparotomy, rather than single-arm occluders and lateral laparotomy. If lesions were detected in the ascending and the transverse colon, a double-arm double-channel endoscopic occlusion could be accomplished. A further prospective randomized trial is needed. Conclusion ===== Endoscopic mucosal resection or endoscopic submucosal dissection is feasible and safe in the treatment of colorectal lesions, and if applied in experienced centers it should replace most of the surgical resection in the near future. Less experience with ESD are required than for EMR. ESD is just a submucosal dissection. Competing interests ===== The authors declare that they have no competing interests. The Geylang Times The Geylang Times, commonly known as the G Times, is an English-language daily newspaper published in Singapore. It is owned and published by the G.B. Media, a company that is a subsidiary of Genting Singapore Holdings Limited, a Singapore-based gambling operator owned by the Malaysian billionaire Lim Goh Tong. History Geylang Times, then known as the Geylang Times and Singa Times, was founded in January 1997. It was first published as a weekly newspaper with the slogan "The voice of the Geylang Times". It was then published as a daily newspaper in November 1997 with the slogan "Your voice in Geylang". The paper was targeted at the Geylang- and Seletar-based communities. It was first published on Saturdays and on Fridays from 2002 onwards. On June 12, 2003, the English-language daily was launched as The Geylang Times with the slogan "Singapore's English-language newspaper for Geylang, Seletar, MacPherson, Botanic and Pioneer". On 8 August 2003, the paper started publishing on a daily basis. Prior to 2007, The Geylang Times remained a weekly newspaper. The paper changed its subtitle from The Geylang Times to The Geylang Times on 10 September 2007. The CEO of the paper, Danley Tan, was replaced with his deputy, Alvin Liew, in August 2012. Liew has since f678ea9f9e
